

Book Club Questions

DEATH TAKES A BATH

1. Maddie McGuire, a nineteen-year-old far from home and far from college, goes through some extreme circumstances. If you found an ear, would you stick around or be on the next plane home?
2. The history of the City of Bath plays a significant role in Maddie's decision to stay and pursue her career in archeology. Did you find her motivation believable?
3. Did you enjoy the tidbits of Roman history and archeology included in the novel?
4. .What scenes foreshadowed Maddie's entrapment and escape?
5. Did you like the pun included in the title of the book? If not, what title would you give it?
6. Which scenes stayed with you? Were there any images that you return to?
7. Does this book make you want to visit England and specifically Bath? Why or why not?
8. Which of the support characters did you enjoy the most? Are there any that you would like to spend more time with?
9. If the book were made into a television series, who would you want to see as Maddie, Edward, Simon, and Lady Vivian?
10. What genre would you put this book in? Traditional Mystery, Cozy Mystery, or Young Adult?

A
COTSWOLD CRIMES
MYSTERY

SHARON LYNN

If you liked it, consider leaving a review!